

A woman with blonde hair, wearing large black-rimmed glasses, a vibrant floral dress in shades of pink, orange, and green, and a thick blue beaded necklace. She is sitting in a silver metal lawn chair on a grassy lawn, holding a green can in her right hand. The background is a white brick wall. The image is presented as a split-screen or double exposure, with the woman appearing on both the left and right sides. A small white table with a pink object on it is visible between the two chairs.
